By plane - to Finland

Helsinki–Vantaa Airport is Finland's main international airport, located approximately 170 km from Turku. The airport offers daily direct flight connections from many European cities.

Finnair¹ is Finland's main airline, and Helsinki–Vantaa is also served by numerous international carriers.

By plane - directly to Turku

Turku Airport is a small and convenient airport located only 8 km from Turku city centre. A selection of direct flights is available, particularly from nearby European cities such as Stockholm², Copenhagen³, Riga⁴, and Gdańsk⁵. Please check the flight schedules for your preferred route and book early.

By Boat (Cruise Ship)

Via Helsinki Harbour

Helsinki Harbour is one of the busiest passenger ports in the Baltic Sea, offering regular cruise and ferry connections to cities such as Stockholm and Tallinn. Several international cruise and ferry operators serve the harbour, providing comfortable overnight and daytime sailings.

Directly to Turku Harbour

Turku Harbour offers regular cruise and ferry connections, particularly to Stockholm and the Åland Islands. The harbour is conveniently located close to the city centre and is served by major Baltic Sea cruise and ferry operators. Please check the sailing schedules for your preferred route and book early.

By Train

Travelling by train is a convenient and comfortable way to reach Turku from Helsinki and other parts of Finland. Long-distance trains operate frequently, and the journey offers a smooth and reliable travel experience.

Turku has two main train stations: Turku Central Station, located in the city centre (approximately 2 km from the venue), and Turku (Kupittaa) Station, which is located right next to the venue and one of the recommended hotels.

Train tickets can be booked via VR. Booking early is recommended, as prices may be dynamic.

By Bus

Travelling by bus is a convenient and economical way to reach Turku from Helsinki and other parts of Finland. Long-distance buses operate frequently, offering a comfortable and reliable travel experience.

Buses stop at several locations in Turku. The main Turku Bus Station is in the city centre, approximately 2 km from the venue. Some buses also stop at Turku University Hospital (TYKS), which is about a 10-minute walk from the venue and nearby recommended hotel.

Bus tickets can be booked via Matkahuolto or Onnibus. Booking early is recommended, as prices may vary depending on demand.

We strongly recommend travelling by direct bus from Helsinki Airport, as this provides the most straightforward connection to Turku. Train services require a transfer at Pasila station.

Getting to AHM2026 with public transport

Public transport in the Turku region is operated by Föli, which provides an extensive network of buses connecting Turku and the surrounding municipalities. Tickets can be purchased using a contactless payment card directly on board, the Föli mobile app, or from ticket machines and sales points. Journey planning, routes and timetables are available on the Föli website.
